

FRIENDS OF NRA CORPORATE SPONSORS

In 2009 Friends of NRA formally introduced the opportunity for companies to support the shooting sports while supporting Friends of NRA and The NRA Foundation. Through the Friends of NRA National Corporate Sponsor Program, companies are able to directly affect millions of Second Amendment enthusiasts through the widely-popular and successful fundraising program.

Numerous businesses across the nation support Friends of NRA in its everyday efforts to raise money for The NRA Foundation, but this sponsorship program takes the grassroots support to the national scale, allowing companies to broaden their scope and benefit an even larger audience.

That is precisely what companies like Daniel Defense, Friends of NRA's 2019 Guardian Sponsor, accomplish through the Friends of NRA National Corporate Sponsorship program. "Our commitment to Friends of NRA is the right thing to do," says Cindy Daniel, Executive Vice President of Daniel Defense. "The future of shooting sports is very personal to Marty and me, as well as our entire team. Not only are we the National Corporate Sponsor, we're also involved on a local level with Coastal Georgia Friends of NRA. I encourage everyone to find a way to get involved on some level to ensure the next generation has the same level of access to shooting sports."

Friends of NRA gives companies large and small the opportunity to sign on at the Guardian, Defender or Protector sponsorship levels to truly unite their company with the program's efforts to support the shooting sports and preserve America's Second Amendment freedoms.
